

The ENGLISH HOME

BEDROOMS & BATHROOMS

25-page style special

Celebrating the essence of English style

November 2017 | Issue 153 | £4.30 | UK Edition

Dream bedrooms

Capture your style – classic, tranquil, pretty

BATHROOM DESIGN

Chic buys & clever layouts

Fires &
fireplaces
Create a smart
focal point

COLOUR SCIENCE
Fascinating insights to inform your choice

HEAVENLY HOMES

Regency townhouse, lakeside retreat, Georgian restoration

Free-blown glass bottles by Louis Thompson, from £500 each, London Glassblowing

Spindle lights in Tea and Eel, £500 each, Rothschild & Bickers

HEART OF GLASS

Nothing embodies the opposing qualities of durability and fragility quite like the stylish form of hand-crafted glass, itself highlighted by an elegant use of colour. Whether used across large swathes as wall panel designs, or in smaller detailed objects encompassing light fittings and delicate objets d'art, the ethereal quality of this timeless material is given new life with sheer washes and bold shades.

Blue Burano Pair by Peter Layton, £6,200, London Glassblowing

Smoked glass Pixley wall light, £155, Fritz Fryer

Vintage green wine bottle, £245, Shimu

Beehive votive in Ink Blue, £15, Dartington Crystal

Fleur doorknobs in Gems finishes, £225 each, by Marie-Véronique Swannell at Haute Déco

Fleur doorknobs in Gems finishes,
£225 each,
by Marie-Véronique
Swannell at Haute Déco

