Haute Déco

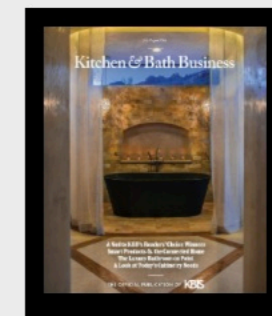

February 9, 2018

Haute Déco has released the Aether collection, a series of cabinet knobs that finds its inspiration in Giacometti's Cubist I Composition. This collection marks a departure in Haute Déco's work to date, which has tended to focus on texture and patterns. With Aether, the focus moves to the interior: at first sight, the miniature works of art appear like simple distorted cubes, each shaped slightly differently. Then the eye is drawn to the manner in which each void has been distinctively carved. Aether is available in bronze and gold finish.
