EDITED BY MORAG BRUCE

Stately pile

The name of this brilliant new cut and loop pile jacquard velvet from

Dedar is Wow and, with these bold, clashing brights, how could it be anything else? We'd use it to reinvent a mid-century armchair. £185.90 per m (dedar.com)

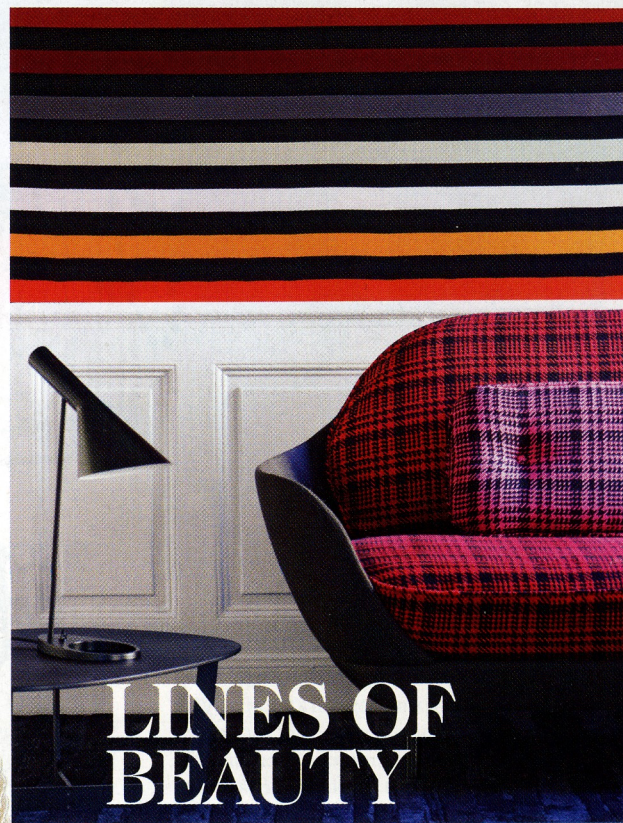

FRINGE BENEFITS

Blending Moroccan chic with a flash of modern neon, this Pahoia tie-back is a thrifty buy from Zara Home. Try it with swagged curtains in elegantly crumpled linen, or go for impact with a bold geometric print. 2.5 x 13cm. £8.99 (zarahome.com)

Art house

Livingetc loves the colour and chunkiness of these Pop Art knobs and handles; great names, too – such as Mercer knob in Hockney Red and Bauhaus pull in Clockwork Orange. Knobs, from £42 each; handle, £150; light switch, from £145 (hautedeco.com)

LINES OF BEAUTY

Chic, fun and effortless – the qualities that make Sonia Rykiel's clothes so iconic are alive and well in the 2012 Sonia Rykiel Maison collection, available through Lelièvre. Rue Du Dragon satin (on wall), £112 per m; Fritz Hansen's Favn sofa and cushions covered in Rue Casanova cotton, £119 per m (lelievre.eu)

FAIR PLAY

Family lifestyle shop Olive Loves Alfie now has its own natural paint range. The cheery circus-themed names hide some clever science. Its secret, soya-based recipe has antibacterial qualities and is toxin-free. From top: Stilt Walker, Usberette, Cabaret, Ghost Train matt emulsions, £38 for 2.5l (olivelovesalfie.co.uk)
