

JUNE 2020

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

INSIDE: 60-PAGE ART AND ANTIQUES GUIDE

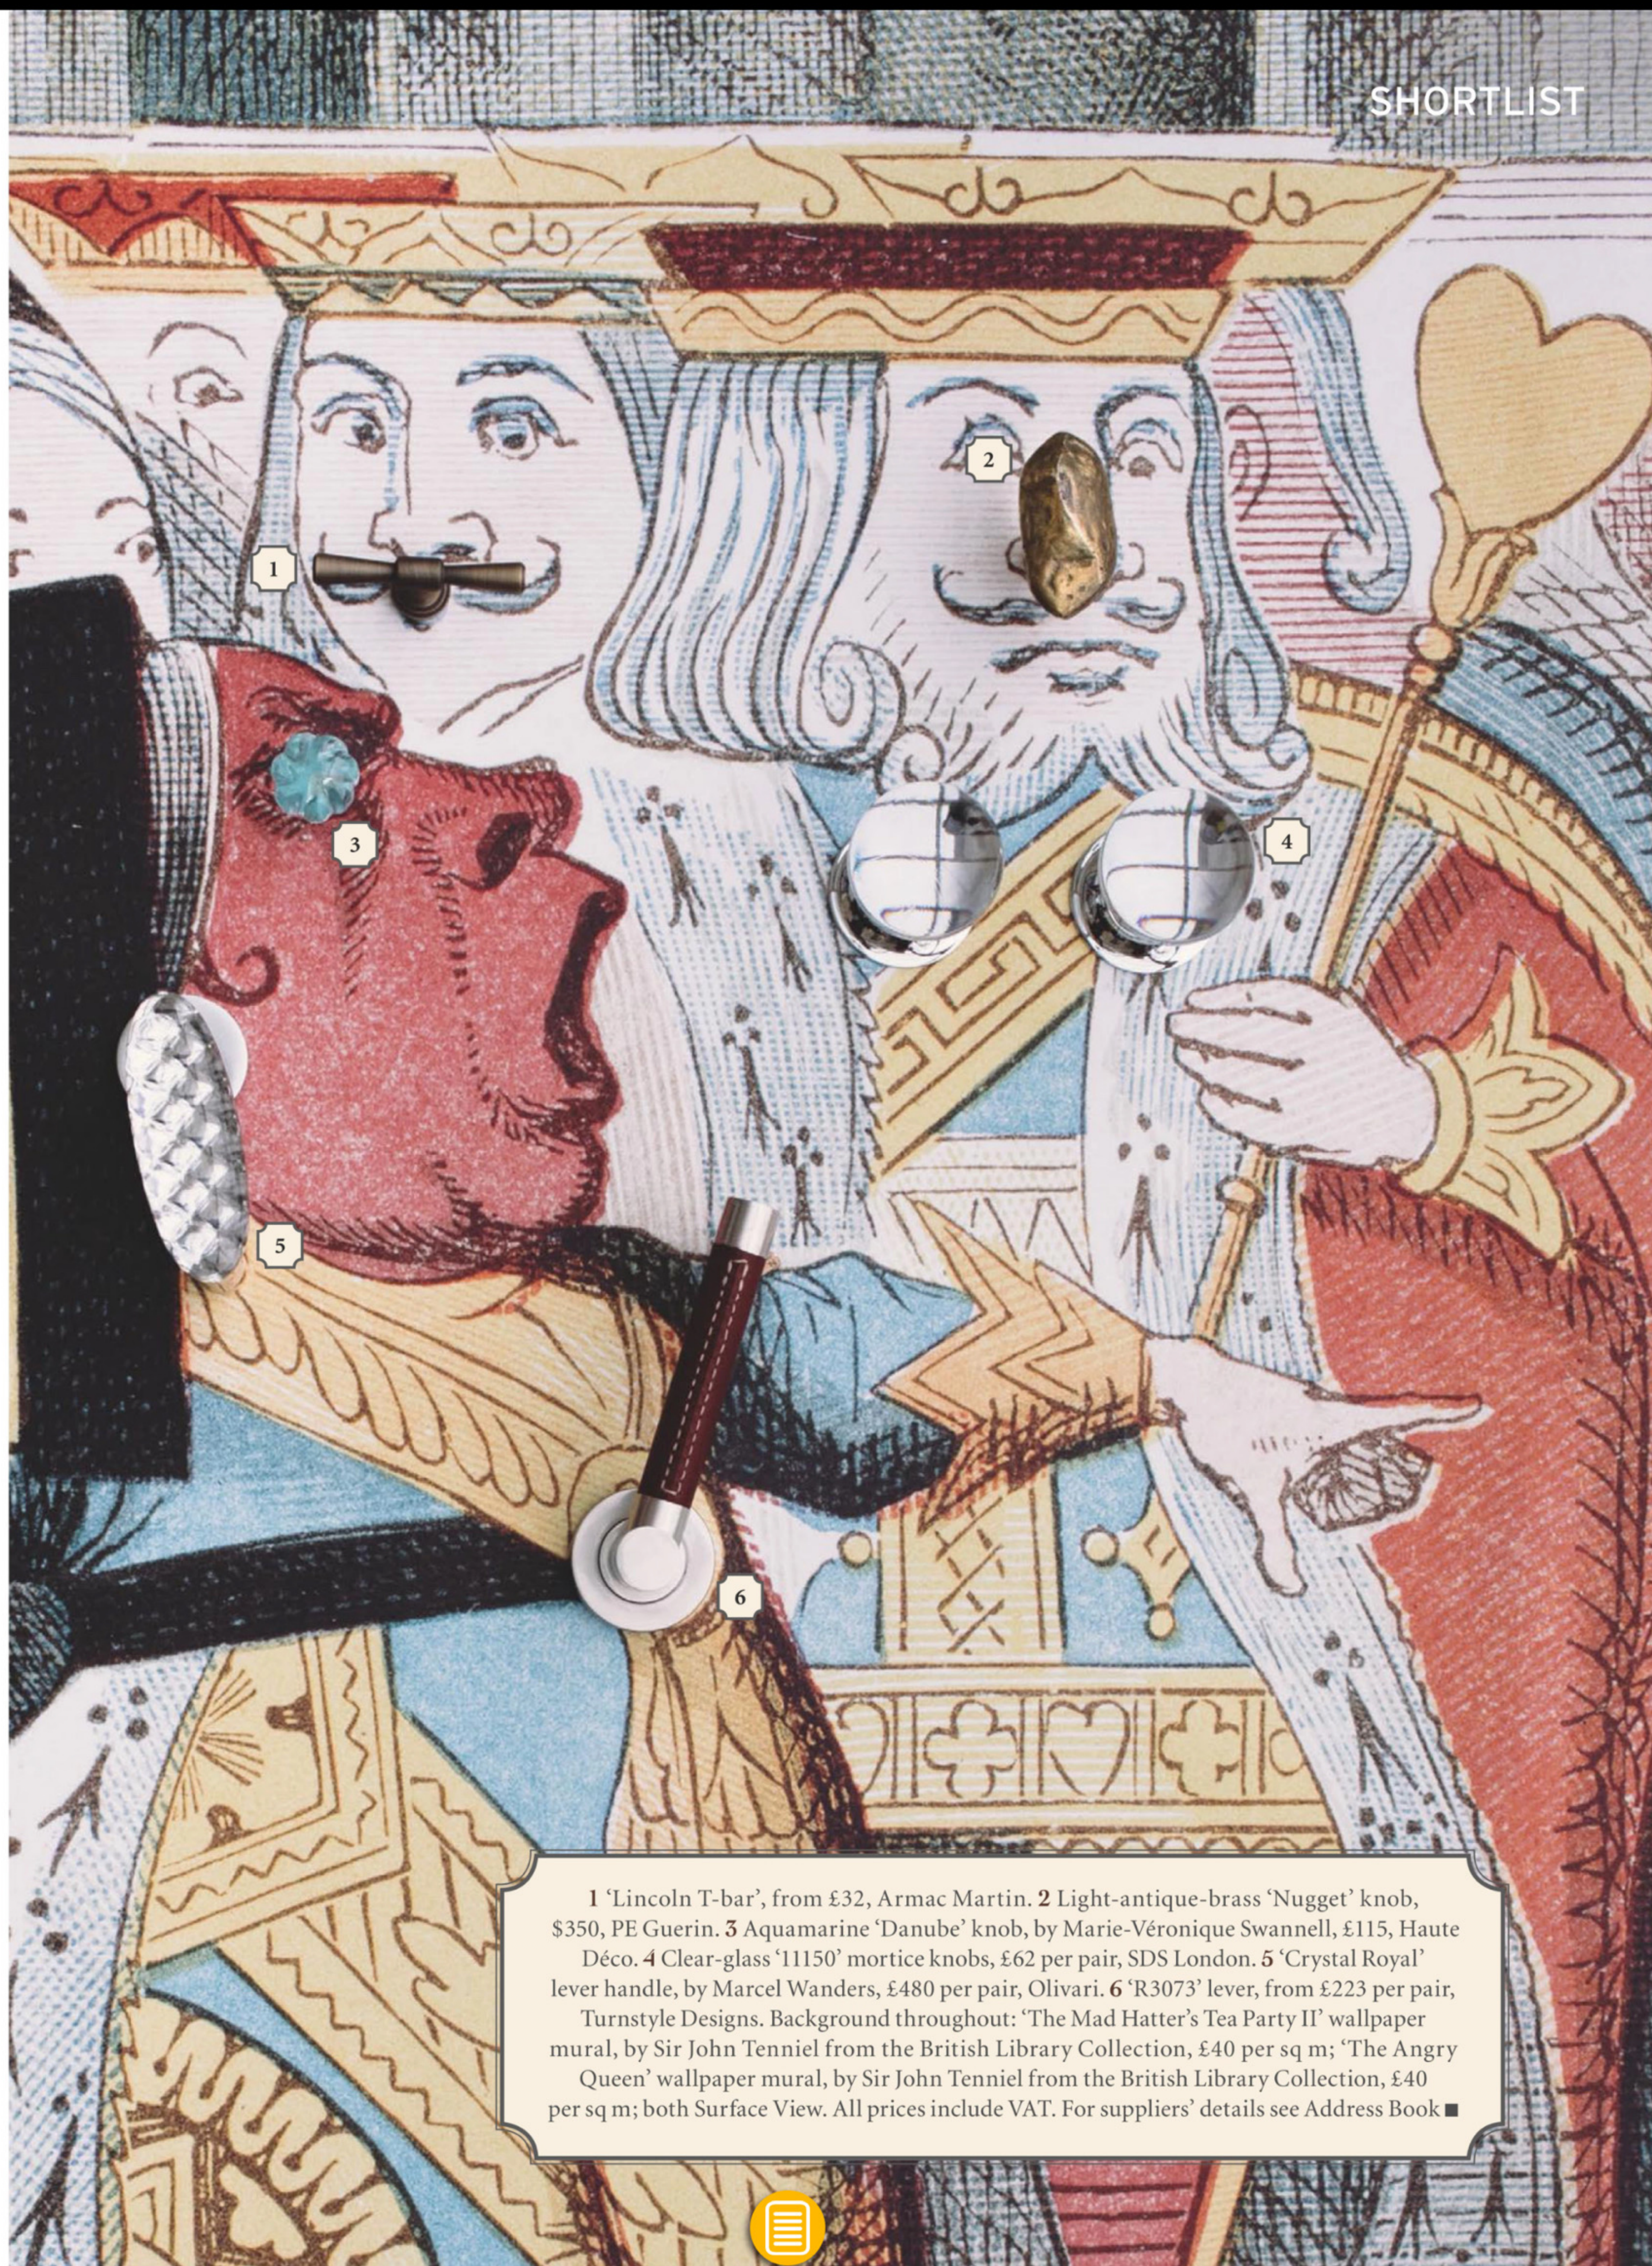

DECOR IS SERVED...

In Mayfair's cultured club, Rajasthan's wildest kitchen and Sydney's new architectural marvel

LEVERS PARTY

Do you yearn to wake up your tired old door furniture with something much more... muchier? Well, turn this way! From classic crystal mortice knobs to entrancing Art Deco pull handles – not to mention curiuser things such as clenched fists and cricket balls – Maude Smith has put on a delightful spread. Indeed, you won't be able to keep your hands off them. Photography: Hermione McCosh

1 'Lincoln T-bar', from £32, Armac Martin. 2 Light-antique-brass 'Nugget' knob, $350, PE Guerin. 3 Aquamarine 'Danube' knob, by Marie-Véronique Swannell, £115, Haute Déco. 4 Clear-glass '11150' mortice knobs, £62 per pair, SDS London. 5 'Crystal Royal' lever handle, by Marcel Wanders, £480 per pair, Olivari. 6 'R3073' lever, from £223 per pair, Turnstyle Designs. Background throughout: 'The Mad Hatter's Tea Party II' wallpaper mural, by Sir John Tenniel from the British Library Collection, £40 per sq m; 'The Angry Queen' wallpaper mural, by Sir John Tenniel from the British Library Collection, £40 per sq m; both Surface View. All prices include VAT. For suppliers' details see Address Book ■

