5 GRAPHIC STATEMENT

Inspired by the shapes found in nature, the graphic Boulevard lacquered Dove Grey MDF door from Bertolotto Porte features a carved forest pattern that extends onto a matching door panel to create a bold focal point. Available in a wide range of RAL and NCS colours, the 4.4cm-thick door measures H210xW80cm and the surrounding panel from H300xW80cm. A complete doorset costs €1,080 (£853).

6 URBAN SHADES

On-trend grey tones have developed into a mix of grey-greens and grey-browns, as well as charcoal shades. This Chocolate Grey Alcaraz glazed door by LPD Doors is made from particleboard with a stained natural oak veneer. At 3.5cm thick, it measures H198xW84cm and is supplied ready to fit, priced £498.99 from Worldstores.

7 WOODGRAIN REVIVAL

Designs that show off the raw natural look of wood are a growing interiors trend, with both glazed and non-glazed doors creating a modern look. The Franquette door, from the Walnut Flush collection at JB Kind, is the perfect example. Made from walnut veneers, with a semi-solid timber core and a clear safety glass panel, it is supplied fully finished to your specifications. Priced £340.80 for a 3.5cm-thick door measuring H198xW68.5cm, with fire door options available.

8 HIGH-GLOSS UPDATE

Made from an acrylic veneer with a timber core, this High Gloss door in black from Todd Doors will add a contemporary touch to a kitchen or bathroom scheme. Available in both standard sizes or bespoke, oversized options, and as a fire door, High Gloss is finished with matching painted edges. It costs £314.40 for a 3.5cm-thick standard door measuring H198xW76cm.
