PETITE TREASURES

Haute Deco, a purveyor of luxury door handles for over 25 years, will be exhibiting at INDEX Dubai (26-29 March). The latest collections include the Aether series of cabinet knobs, which is a departure from Haute Deco's work in bronze. Rather than focusing on textures and patterns, the collection explores carving the inner section of a series of distorted cubes in a style reminiscent of Giacometti's Cubist I composition. The colourful Fleur collection – which includes the new Mandarine colour – blends the romantic and feminine charm of Victoriana with its stylised tulip shape. hautedeco.com

SLEEPING BEAUTY

The Italian design visionaries at Flexform have launched their latest collection: Mood. Created to ensure the sweetest of dreams, the collection offers a luxurious range of beds, furniture and stylish accessories designed for the contemporary bedroom. Crafted to convey a sense of modern warmth, the upholstered beds feature gorgeous, generous proportions and soft enveloping headboards and covers in high-end, sophisticated fabrics such as wool, linen and velvet, which are available in several colours. Clean, elegant lines and refined wood finishes, including coffee-coloured stain or wengé stain, bestow an elegant touch on the collection's many furnishings. Add an armchair and ottoman to create an instant oasis and soothing sleep environment. 04 244 5051 / flexform.it

SWEET DREAMS

This spring, indulge in the everyday art of sleep with Ikea's fresh, calming designs. The company's modern beds, mattresses, table lamps and accessories make it easy to perfect and personalise every detail of the sleep experience and transform any bedroom into a serene oasis for rest, rejuvenation and wellness.

From cosy, warm fabrics to clean lines and gentle curves, each element embraces all the senses. The average person has three to seven dreams a night and spends a minimum of six years dreaming, so let Ikea be your passport to embark on a smooth, relaxing voyage to dreamland. 04 203 7555 / ikea.com
